Cupid's Advice:

Conflict naturally happens when you spend so much time together as a couple. Here are some tips to reduce tension in your relationship:

1. Be upfront and honest while it's happening: Communicate your pet peeves as they come to light, and do not save them for later. Calling out the problem while it's still relevant will relieve you of bottled up emotions that will later build up over time and explode.

2. Avoid passive aggressive behavior: Petty behavior will become a bad habit in your relationship if you feel the need to hide behind your real emotions. If you or your partner act this way, take a deep breath and evaluate how to confront the problem.

3. Don't let the small stuff get to you: You have to pick and choose your battles. Drama is bound to happen, but it's better to let it be over a bigger problem like cheating, then a smaller problem like someone forgetting to do a certain chore. You and your partners feelings are valid. Just consider what you're fighting over.
