

Date Idea: Take In Some Cartoons

By Melissa Lee

Remember Sesame Street, Winnie the Pooh and Bugs Bunny? They were probably your favorite cartoons when you were younger, and still are today. But now that you're older and too busy, you might not have the time to watch them.

Well, why not use this date idea and spend this weekend catching up on your favorite cartoons with your mate? After all, you're never too old for Loony Tunes.

Snuggle up on the couch with your man and watch some Saturday morning cartoons. Make a breakfast complete with Lucky Charms, and turn back the clock to a time when everything was easy.

Related Link: Date Idea: Laugh Out Loud Fun

Spend the following day with an animated flick at a theater. Not interested in anything that's currently being played? Rent your favorite Disney classic films and cuddle up with with a bowl of popcorn and soda at home with your significant other.

Related Link: Date Idea: Embrace Each Other with a Scary Movie Marathon

What are some of your favorite cartoons? Share below.