Cupid's Advice:

When you feel yourself falling for more than one person, it can be a little tough making a decision. If this situation sounds familiar to you, check out some of this advice from Cupid:

1. Do some self-reflecting: Before taking action, take some time to reflect and think about your situation. Do you already know which one you like more? Have you been leading both people on? Analyze the circumstances before you make a choice, and try to come up with a civil solution that would be most beneficial for all people included.

2. Confide in someone you trust: If that doesn't work, go to someone you trust, whether it be a parent, best friend, or relative. Explain the situation to them and listen to their opinion. They might be able to point out something you were previously unaware of, and potentially even help you come to a conclusion.

3. Be honest with them: At the end of the day, it's important to realize that this situation is most likely affecting them as well as you.
