This celebrity baby has really grown up! How can you and your partner prepare your child for their first year of school?

Cupid's Advice:

As parents, you and your partner must be excited for your child to start school. Here's how you and your partner can prepare your little one for their big step into growing up:

- 1. Make a schedule: Base your family schedule off of when your child enters and leaves school during the week. This can get your partner and your child into a routine of how you can live your new lifestyles.

3. Be extra supportive: Your child may be nervous to start school. Now is a good time for you and your partner to boost your child's confidence and be there for them on their first day. Try your best not to be too overprotective, but be present when your child asks for help or seems scared about their new beginning.
