Sadly, another celebrity divorce is in the center of this week's celebrity news. Audrina Patridge has filed for divorce from Corey Bohan after 10 months of marriage. While the couple wishes to keep their privacy at the moment, UsMagazine.com has learned that the relationship has been troublesome from the beginning. Even though they wanted to make it work for their infant daughter, Patridge and Bohan have already taken steps toward separating and are living apart.

This celebrity divorce seems to have come out of nowhere. What are some ways to know you've done everything you can to save your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When you love someone, you want to do everything you can to make the relationship work. However, sometimes you have done all you can and still nothing seems to go right. Here are a few ways to know that it's time to move on:

1. You have tried: The only way to save a relationship is to put in the work. You have to make an effort to change the dynamic between you and your partner and make serious changes. If you feel that you have put time and energy into the relationship and nothing has changed, it may be time to move on.

3. The love just isn't there: You may get along okay as roommates, but the love you once had for each other is no longer there ... and you can't get it back. The fact is, sometimes people just fall out of love, and there's not much you can do about it. If that's the case for you, it's time for an amicable split and to move on with your life.
