Cupid's Advice:

Having a baby is exciting and something you want to enjoy forever. While some people are ready and willing to share their news right away, others may want to put it off for a while. Here are a few ways to keep your baby news quiet:

1. Only tell people you trust: If you need or want to tell a few people about your baby, by all means do so! However, in order to keep the secret from getting to too many ears, only tell people you really trust. This way, it is less likely that the news will get spread around to other people. Make sure the ones you tell are people who will support you and have your back through the pregnancy.

2. Hide your bump: If you are the one carrying the baby and want to keep the secret for a while, you may want to hide your bump from the public eye. An easy way to do this is to wear baggy clothing or lots of layers. This way, no one will think about what is underneath all the clothing because it will fall off your body so easily.

3. Carry on: When you are trying to hide a huge lifestyle change, you should continue to live your life as normal. If you all of a sudden stop going out with your friends, or seeing people in your family, they will suspect that something is up. Instead, continue your life as if nothing has changed and no one will think twice about it.
