While it may seem impossible to move on while enduring a rough divorce, it is possible. If you are having trouble, Cupid has some ideas that might just help you out:

1. Ask for help: There's nothing wrong with admitting you need help. Contrary to what you may believe, it's not a sign of weakness, but rather, a sign of strength. Admitting you need help will garner a lot of respect from those around you. Yes, you can still consider yourself strong and independent and still require extra help from time to time!

2. Celebrate small: If you find yourself constantly down from a messy divorce, sometimes it's easier to find small things to celebrate. Even if it's something as seemingly mundane as putting on "real pants" rather than sweats – that's something to be proud of. Coloring your world with more positivity will cause you to see things more positively.

3. Focus on yourself: While it may seem so lonely to be on your own for the first time in a while, use this time of independence to learn more about yourself and what you truly want. Self-discovery will help you focus on your personal goals for the future, without having to focus on somebody else's wants, needs, and desires. Don't jump into another relationship until you feel ready for it.
