Cupid's Advice:

Being open about your relationship has many benefits that not only help you, but also help others. Check out these tips from Cupid:

1. It's mature: There is a certain maturity that comes from being open about your woes. Nobody has a perfect relationship that is free from conflict. Being honest about your past mistakes and showing an active desire to change and grow is very mature. People will respect you and shouldn't look at you any differently!

2. It's therapeutic: Sometimes, you need a listening ear to help process your feelings and emotions. When you talk to your close, inner circle about the good and bad parts of your relationship, you're allowing yourself to be vulnerable – which isn't always easy to do. It is also super beneficial to your mental health and wellbeing, and you'll have a newfound clarity in due time.

3. It's helpful to others: We're all familiar with the saying "everyone has something going on." We are naturally inclined to conceal the ugly parts of our lives, so you might not even realize one of your coworkers or close friends are going through a rough patch! Sharing your story is helpful to others who are facing similar situations, whether it's intentional or not.
