like, chill and relaxed, supportive, cool,” she said. “We don’t need to rush into anything.” Hang in there, Corinne!

Corinne Olympios just went through another celebrity break-up very soon after announcing her relationship. What are some ways to know if your new relationship will last?

Cupid’s Advice:

When you begin a relationship, there’s always an element of uncertainty. Sometimes, you just know when somebody’s going to be around for longer than a few dates. Here’s what Cupid has to say:

1. They’re eager to be with you: Everyone’s busy to some extent. However, it is important to recognize the difference between not having time and making time. If your partner seems super eager to spend a lot of time with you, and never (or very, very seldom) postpones plans, that is very telling! Even better: when the time they want to spend with you is thoughtful or seemingly mundane (i.e. offering to tag along with you while you run errands.)

2. They take a genuine interest in your life: When others might brush you off and seem indifferent about something small that excites you, your new partner shares the new excitement with you. They love hearing you talk about the details of your life – big and small. The same goes for you, too. If you’re excited to learn all there is to know about them, you might just have yourself a lasting relationship!

3. They listen (and remember!): We can all tell if somebody is actively listening and genuinely caring. Perhaps you mentioned something in passing, and they bring it up later. That's a really, really good sign! It shows that they care about you and all that you have to offer!
