last month, and have been together since last year. We seriously can't wait until May to tune into this celebrity wedding!

This royal celebrity wedding has an official wedding date we can all anticipate! What are some ways to decide what time of year to tie the knot?

Cupid's Advice:

Picking your big wedding date is a very important detail to figure out! If you're having trouble deciding when you want to celebrate your big day, see what Cupid has to say:

1. If the season fits: It may seem like a no-brainer, but picking a season is an easy way to narrow down your options. Maybe you prefer cold weather rather than warm – you've already crossed all the months in the summer seasons out! Pick what's best for you and your partner is the key here.

2. Consult your family: Perhaps you and your partner hold family closest to your hearts. If so, perhaps reaching out to them for some advice would be helpful. You certainly don't have to plan your wedding day around them, but working with them will help you keep peace of mind!

3. Singling out the days that don't work: If all else fails and you're still in a bind, start crossing out the days on the calendar that are absolute no-no's. If you're a busy professional, then your busiest month probably isn't the best choice for you. Big holidays might be other dates to avoid – unless you can get your save-the-dates out well enough in advance.
