This celebrity baby news is great to hear! What are some ways to compromise with your partner on baby names?

Cupid's Advice:

Choosing your baby's name is exciting, but can also be a bit tedious considering you and your partner should be in agreement with the name chosen. Cupid has some advice on how to get on the same page when it comes to the name of your tiny loved one:

1. Try using a compromising tool online: Babynamester.com has this tool, along with many suggested baby names for you and your partner to check out. The way it works is you enter the sex of the baby, then you and your partner each type in what your top baby names are. Next, you choose which one you each like best from your partner's list. And lastly, the site generates a long list of combined baby name preferences. Try it and see if it may work for you!

2. The Middle Name: One of you can choose the first name and the other one can choose the middle name. Many couples compromise in this manner. Although, choosing the first name is most likely ideal for both parties, the middle name is the one that gives the name uniqueness considering that not everyone has a middle name, and on top of that, a middle name is a nice differentiating addition to a first name.

3. Combine the names: This isn't always possible, but it sometimes is. You can create a beautiful, unique name! For example in the hit Twilight Saga: Breaking Dawn, Bella (played by Kristen Stewart) combined the names she and her husband Edward (played by Robert Pattinson) liked: Renee (Bella's mom's name) and Esme (Edward's mom's name), resulting in the name Renesmee.
