Michelle Williams has kept her upcoming celebrity wedding news under wraps. What are some reasons to keep your relationship on the down-low?

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships are usually between two individuals. It gets complicated sometimes when other people try to interfere. Sometimes it's beneficial, but other times it's better to just keep your business between you and your significant other. Cupid has some reasons why you could be keeping your relationship on the down-low:

1. Not everyone will be happy for you: The public may judge as people are getting into relationships very soon after the end of a previous relationship. As long as you are happy with your partner, that is all that matters and you don't owe reasoning to anyone else.

2. Less people will interfere: Sometimes you just need time for yourself. By keeping your relationship on the down-low, you can minimize unwanted opinions about how you are conducting your life. Guidance is great, but true personal growth comes from making your own mistakes from decisions within.

3. The breakup is easier: When getting into a relationship after previous tragic events in life, it is sometimes harder to keep a steady relationship. Instead of having multiple people trying to keep up with your status, it is easier to just do your own thing and if relationships end, less gossip will arise because many people won't know about it in the first place.
