Cupid’s Advice:

It’s an awesome idea to pay homage to your relatives when naming your new generation. Cupid has some ideas for you:

1. Use a maiden name: Maiden names make beautiful first names! If your maiden name is too masculine or feminine, use a variation that fits your style. Nicholson or Nicholas can easily become Nicole, Michaels can become Michaela. The possibilities are endless, you just have to get creative!

2. Middle names matter: If you are set on a first name that has no relation to your family, consider tying your child’s middle name in! You can use the same middle name as a parent, grandparent, or even great-grandparent, or even use their first name. That way, there is a direct familial connection, which will certainly be appreciated.

3. Use a combo: Perhaps you want your child to have connections to both sides of the family. This can be done a variety of ways. You can combine two names as a hybrid first name, use one as a first and another as a second, or put a hyphen between the two! No feelings will be hurt when you make a clear effort to bring together both families!
