In celebrity news, Prince Harry & Meghan Markle will be having some very special music at their wedding. What are some ways to incorporate music in your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

The goal is for your wedding day to be as magical as possible. The incorporation of music can help that dream become a reality! With all of the hustle and bustle of planning a wedding, the little details of adding music into certain spots can be overlooked. Luckily, Cupid is here to remind you of some cool ways to incorporate music into your wedding:

1. Don't forget about pre-ceremony music: You want to get your guests in the wedding mood right when they walk in the door. Play some background music while your guests arrive to help set the mood for the ceremony. Choose some of your favorite love songs or some instrumental pieces that you genuinely enjoy!

2. Choose dinner music wisely: In order for people to converse over their meal, the music that is played during the meal portion of your wedding should not be the craziest. Set the mood with some Indie songs if that is something that you are into! Or go with the classical wedding music during this time.

3. Live music!: Live music is always a great idea at the wedding reception. Search for a band or group that is good at performing the type of music that you wish to have at your wedding. Remember that the music really sets the tone for your wedding. If you are having trouble figuring out which music will go best during certain parts of your wedding, don't be afraid to consult with your closest friends or even the bartender or whoever you have chosen to perform the live music- everyone will have unique ideas! Maybe even browse through Spotify to help brainstorm about what type of music would be best. Overall, the music that will really be overpowering on your wedding day is the sound of your loving heart which beats for your partner.
