In celebrity news, it looks like the First Lady isn’t very happy with her life at the moment. What are some ways to communicate that you are unhappy to your partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

Effective communication is essential in all relationships. When you’re unhappy, you must talk to your partner in order for you both to move forward. Cupid has some relationship advice:

1. Speak in person: Do not talk about something this serious over text message or on the phone. If you have no other choice, then talk on the phone. The reason why speaking in person is better is not only because it’s intimate, but also because you get to see their face while hearing their tone at the same time. Speaking on the phone, and texting especially, can cause miscommunication.

2. Choose the right time and go for it: Don’t beat around the bush. You have to say how you feel, and try to choose the right time. A time when neither of you are in a bad mood works best because the conversation will most likely be productive. Also, you have to make sure that there is enough time to have a discussion. When it comes to a problem like being unhappy, that is no 10-minute conversation.

3. Don't sugar coat: You have to be straight up if you intend on getting anywhere. If you try to make things nicer and sweeter than they really are, you'll just be misleading your partner. You need them to understand exactly how you feel if there's going to be any chance of you both fixing the issue at hand. Don't be aggressive and mean either. Just find a good in between and go for it. Don't be scared or shy.
