Cupid's Advice:

Marriage is a lifelong commitment that must be worked on day in and day out. Sometimes it may get rocky along the way, but try not to give up! Here are some ways to work on your marriage before breaking it off:

1. Remember why you got married: You are going to need some motivation if you want to avidly work on your marriage during a rough time. Try your best to remember why you got married in the first place. Ponder the amazing assets of your partner and visualize the amazing wedding that you shared together. Maybe even try to do things that you used to do when you first started dating or when you first got married in order to ignite that spark again and become motivated for this improvement process.

2. Take a walk together each day: It sounds so simple yet it is so beneficial. Taking time out of each of your days to take a nice stroll around your neighborhood will give you and your partner an opportunity to discuss your feelings and further hone the bond that you have. You can talk about how your day went and then get into some serious points as to why you are needing to work on your marriage. Being in the outdoors will also help you and your partner to be more open and happy while conversing.

3. Practice forgiveness: Try to open your mind and see things the way that your partner is seeing things. Now is not time for the blame game. That will only prove to be detrimental. Take responsibility for your own actions and move on from there. Keep in your mind that you are trying to improve your relationship instead of looking for reasons to end it.
