Cupid’s Advice:

We can’t deny that sometimes you will get into fights with your partner. But, you don’t want your young children to be negatively affected by this. Cupid has some advice:

1. Stray away from social media: Whether your child is old enough to be on social media now or not, whatever you put out there will stay out there. If you are going through struggles with your partner, try your best to keep it between you two and don’t impulsively post negativity.

2. Have a getaway: If you and your partner really need to hash things out, take a little weekend trip. Have your parents or a close friend watch over your child while you guys spend some time elsewhere to work out your differences. This way, your child won't have to experience the yelling and screaming. Sometimes, the best thing to do is have some time alone with your partner to figure out what is best for your family as a whole.

3. Never neglect them: Obviously you need to figure out what is best for you and your partner right now, but don't let all of that fighting take away from the love you have for your child. Remember, you did one thing right together by bringing this beautiful baby into the world and they are your first priority.
