It isn't celebrity news that celebrity couple Ryan Reynolds and Blake Lively is absolutely adorable. However, what is celebrity news is that Lively unfollowed Reynolds on Instagram and he joked about it on an interview with Smallzy's Surgery, according to EOnline.com. "Yes, she did. I'm very sad about that," Reynolds said. "Definitely stinks. It's a terrible way to find out that I've been kicked out of the house, to be honest. Absolutely terrible. I don't know where rage like that comes from." But why did she unfollow him? Well, Lively recently deleted all of her Instagram posts and only followed numerous accounts named Emily. She also shared a trailer for her new movie A Simple Favor, where she plays a character named Emily. Seems like this unfollowing is far from personal and just professionally strategic.

In celebrity couple news, it seems Blake Lively unfollowed her husband Ryan Reynolds on Instagram. What are some factors to consider regarding social media when it comes to relationships?

Cupid's Advice:

We are in the age of social media, and our relationships are many times heavily involved with it. Cupid has some suggestions for your relationship when it comes to those of you who want to embrace social media:

1. Couple photos: Share photos of you love birds doing things that are you or that show off your personality. Some couples post photos, some do not. Some post lots, some post a few, some post none. That's just how it is. But if you want your relationship to embrace social media, then sharing couple photos or even a photo of your partner helps.

2. Make it official: Put a relationship status on Facebook or put something in your bio on Instagram. Different couples do it differently. On Instagram for example, some couples put the date of the relationship in their bio, or their partners name, or simply a lock to show they're cuffed, along with any other emojis. Decide which one you would like to do.
