By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, Selena Gomez has moved on from her celebrity ex Justin Bieber and has no interest in getting back together with him in the foreseeable future. According to EOnline.com, sources say she is in a better place now after some self-reflection. "She respects him as a person, but has decided she is much happier doing her own thing. Selena rarely even talks about Justin anymore, and is fully open to dating," a source said. Another source added that the former celebrity couple are not in contact either. Gomez is doing great in her career and friends and family are happy to see her doing well.

Good for her!

These celebrity exes are going to remain exes, at least for now. What are some ways to decide that you're better off without someone?

Cupid's Advice:

Every person is different and so is every situation, so think hard about whether someone is right for you or not. Cupid has some relationship advice on things to consider before deciding whether you're better off without someone or not:

1. Have they done unforgivable things?: Forgiving them means accepting the situation and their apology, and moving on from it. There is no point in saying you will forgive your partner, if the problem will just keep popping up in the future. So, analyze and evaluate whether what they did is something you can move on from.

2. Are they worth it?: This question may seem harsh, but it's one you have to ask yourself and be honest about. Do you see a future with this person? How has your relationship with them been overall? Consider these things. Ponder away.

3. Have you given yourself enough time to make this choice?: Depending on the situation, you may need a little time or a lot of time to think things over. Don't make any impulsive decisions. Don't rush, take the time you need. You need time to decide whether this person is someone that deserves to be in your life. The people in your life should be making it better, not creating complete and utter chaos.
