Monday on Twitter, Ora explained the song, writing, "'Girls' was written to represent my truth and is an accurate account of a very real and honest experience in my life. I have had romantic relationships with women and men throughout my life and this is my personal journey. I am sorry how I expressed myself in my song has hurt anyone.” Kardashian, Ora’s ex-boyfriend, retweeted her message with six praise hand emojis. According to EOnline.com, Ora and Kardashian had a dramatic celebrity break-up, but it seems the two have since moved on and are on friendly terms.

Rob Kardashian has his celebrity ex’s back during this drama. What are some ways to stay on good terms with your ex post-breakup?

Cupid’s Advice:

It shows great maturity to support your ex after a break-up. Cupid has some tips on how to keep things amicable post-split:

1. Open communication: While your first instinct after a break-up might be to block your ex on every outlet of social media while ceasing any interactions, it’s sometimes better to keep the channel of communication open. Don’t be afraid to contact your ex to tie up loose ends. Just because you aren’t in a relationship anymore doesn’t mean your ex doesn’t have to be in your life!

3. Don't get tempted by drama: It's possible you might have some hard feelings about your ex after your split. Instead of keeping up old grudges over what went wrong in the relationship, let it go! Make sure you avoid participating in the gossip cycle about your ex. Don't worry about who your ex is dating or doing, focus on you.
