

Fashion Trend: Fresh Ways to Accessorize Your Old Outfits

By

Haley Lerner

We all know what it's like when you have lots of clothing, but still have no clue what to wear. Sometimes, your old outfits do little to excite you anymore. Your previously favorite shirt now bores you, and your go-to skirt seems over-used. This summer, it's time to revive your old outfits with some new accessories that will really make heads turn.

Check out these great fashion trends that will freshen up your old outfits!

1. Sunglasses: They're the perfect summer accessory. They shield your eyes from harmful UV rays, but they can also be super cute. Get a few cheap pairs of frames in styles that suit you. Then, you have multiple options to match to your old outfits to and give you a cooler vibe.

2. New shoes: A fun new pair of shoes will spice up any bland outfit. Go for a pair with a pop of color so that they are the attention point instead of your clothes.

Related Link: Fashion Trends: 5 Best Ways to Wear Your Favorite Spring-Time Dress

3. A new hairstyle: Sometimes, the best way to feel more confident in the clothes you already own is by changing up your physical look. Try out a new color or haircut at the salon. It can totally change the way you see yourself in your old clothes.

4. Jewelry: Beautiful jewelry can totally change the way an outfit looks. Splurge on a few nice pieces, such as hoop earrings, a pendant necklace or a fashion bracelet to revitalize your wardrobe.

Related Link: Fashion Trend: The '70s Are Back in Style

5. Hats: From baseball caps to berets, headwear can totally change up the look of your outfit. Try throwing one on with your overused look to make it feel brand new!

Have any more ideas on ways to accessorize your old outfits? Comment them below!