Cupid's Advice:

Break ups are one of the hardest things you go through in life. Through the pain, you have to find the light even if it takes some time. Cupid has some advice on how to recover after a tough break up:

1. Cry: Never ever be ashamed to cry! Man or woman, everybody has a heart and can have it broken. The best self therapy is to just let it all out. Whether it happens when you are in front of people or when you are alone, you will feel so much better. Holding back the tears won't help you because you aren't expressing how you feel. Building up emotions isn't healthy and can cause issues later.

2. Talk: Talking is another therapeutic way to help recover from a tough break up. Speak about what happened. It will only help ease the pain away. Say you accidentally spilled your coffee. Initially, in anger you say, "Darn! I spilled my coffee." As the day goes on, you soon lose the anger and when you explain what happened, the anger is no longer there. Speaking on what happened and repeating things somehow helps put your mind and in this case, your heart at ease.

3. Go out: While we're not saying head out to the clubs or immediately sign up for speed dating, taking baby steps and enjoying yourself will help with recovery. Start small, like a movie date with friends or even by yourself. Surrounding yourself with loved ones always helps, but sometimes you just need to be alone. Dating yourself for a while is a great way to heal your broken heart. Sometimes simply taking yourself for ice cream can help.
