In her post on June 25, Cardi B said, “There are so many moments that I share with the world and there are moments that I want to keep for myself! Getting married was one of those moments! Our relationship was so new breaking up and making up and we had a lot of growing to do but we was so in love we didn't want to lose each other." The star wrote that the two had a low-key ceremony, saying, "We found someone to marry us, and she did, just the two of us and my cousin. I said I do, with no dress, no makeup and no ring!" According to EOnline.com, the couple had a very public celebrity engagement a month after the two actually wed. Offset proposed to Cardi B during Power 99's Powerhouse in Philadelphia with a stunning 8-carat, pear-shaped diamond ring. Cardi B also wrote in her Twitter post, "I appreciate and love my husband so much for still wanting for me have that special moment that every girl dreams of when he got down on his knee and put a ring on my finger and he did that for me!! Well now since you lil nosey f—ks know at least ya can stop saying I had a baby out of wedlock." The married couple now are awaiting the birth of their first child together.

No one knew about this celebrity wedding when it happened. What are some reasons to keep your wedding under wraps?

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding day is all about you and your partner, so you should be allowed privacy if you want it. Cupid has some reasons you should keep your wedding on the down-low:

1. It's more intimate: Having a very private wedding can actually be super romantic. By only clueing in your closest loved ones about you and your beau tying the knot, you're making the day even more special. A small ceremony and celebration will make your wedding day feel extra special.
