Cupid's Advice:

It's exciting being in a new relationship and it's even more exciting to tell friends and family. Cupid has some ways to announce your relationship to your friends and family:

1. See it to believe it: As much as family and friends have heard about this new flame, a good introduction would be to bring them to a party or gathering. While yes, you and your new partner may steal the spot light for a bit, this will be the perfect time for everyone to meet. Whether it is a family party or a get together with friends, you will be able to introduce your new partner to a group rather than one by one. You also won't have to repeat yourself as many times.

2. Telephone: While you can talk about your new relationship with a simple phone call, your friends and family will end up playing the game telephone. You can just throw in the towel if your parents know. From aunts, uncles, and cousins, you can bet that when you are asked about your new flame, their version of your new lover will be different. The telephone also eliminates you having to tell everyone. I'm sure if you tell your big mouthed cousin she will tell everyone.
