This celebrity divorce is almost official after long deliberations. What are some ways to keep your divorce proceedings civil?

Cupid's Advice:

When going through something so trying, it can be tough to keep things civil. But, you're always better off not fighting and getting heated, especially if there are kids involved. Cupid has some tips:

1. Always include a middle man: Whenever you're talking about your divorce, make sure there's someone there to mediate. There's a reason you're getting divorced, which probably means effective communication between the two of you is at an all-time low. Having someone else there to listen to both sides will be helpful.

2. Take a few breaths before responding: Keep spur of the moment reactions to a minimum by taking a beat before responding to various requests. Think through what you want to say before you say it, so that you don't end up saying something you regret.

3. Think about the love you once had: You got married for a reason in the first place so keep that in the back of your mind while you're going through your divorce proceedings. This will open up that soft spot you had for your former S.O. and will keep you more level-headed.
