2. Practically living together: If you're basically already living together. Which means spending most nights at your partner's place or vice versa. It would make sense to move in together. The transition to cohabitation will be natural. You've seen them sick, smelt their morning breath, observed their nightly habits. You're completely comfortable with each other. You have more realistic expectations moving in together when you know that your partner leaves her clothes on the bathroom floor, or that she doesn't wash the dishes after she cooks.
