

Celebrity Engagement? Jennifer Lopez Flashes Diamond Ring at Game 2 of World Series With A-Rod

By Ivana Jarmon

Could there be wedding bells in Jennifer Lopez's future? In celebrity news, Lopez flashed some bling at Game 2 of the World Series with Alex Rodriguez, UsMagazine.com reports. The celebrity couple sparked engagement rumors after Rodriguez posted a video of girlfriend Lopez wearing a large diamond ring. The couple were first linked together in March 2017, and Lopez gushed, "We're like mirror images of each other."

There may be a highly anticipated celebrity engagement to announce soon! How do you know you're ready for marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Although being in love with someone seems like it would be enough for you to rush to the altar, but getting married requires more than just love. Cupid has some tips on how to tell if you're ready for marriage:

1. You love yourself: In the great words of RuPaul, "if you can't love yourself, how the hell are you going to love somebody else?" It's a cliché, but it's also the truth. You can't be happy with somebody else until you're happy with yourself.

Related Link: Moving On: Jennifer Garner is Dating Businessman John Miller After Celebrity Divorce

2. You're truly in love and want to spend the rest of your life with them: Your partner should be the reason why you want to get married. This person has met all of your requirements and has successfully cleared the milestones in your choice in a mate. Your partner is a person you can see a long future with through any hardship.

Related Link: Royal Celebrity Baby: Prince Harry Hopes First Child With Duchess Meghan Is a Girl

3. On the same page: When it comes to your future together, you both should be on the same page. You will want to have some of the same values and goals and should have discussed topics such as kids, religion, and finances. If you feel like you've talked through important future goals together and you're aligned, that's a good sign.

What are some tips on how to tell if you're ready for marriage? Share your thoughts below.