Celebrity Couple Taylor Swift and Joe Alwyn are elegant in the face of rumors. What are some ways you and your partner can approach rumors?

Cupid's Advice:

Rumors can have some serious ramifications for your relationship, depending on the nature of the gossip. What should you do when the rumors are flying about you and your partner?

1. Always speak to your partner first: Together you can discuss how you would like to tackle the situation. Should you ignore it, or say something?

2. Don't do anything to aggravate the situation: Misunderstandings are bound to happen amongst family and friends when a new relationship starts. Maybe you're so wrapped up in your bubble of love, it's hard to fathom sharing any details yet. As a result, the gossip has started flying! You don't need to tell people anything you don't want to about your relationship. Either address it or let people cook in their assumptions. Leave a little mystery to your love life!

3. Be honest with anyone important who might have heard the rumor: If it's Joe Shmoe in the work office who only started a week before, then it's none of his business. But if you and your partner's family and friends hear about the rumor, they may get worried something else more serious may be going on. It's okay to clear the air with them because immediate family and close friends will be there to support you and your partner later.
