Cupid's Advice:

Announcing the news of a divorce between you and your spouse of many years can be very difficult. What's even tougher is deciding when it's appropriate to take that ring off in public. Cupid has some ideas of when it's acceptable to step out in the limelight minus your ring.

1. Let the news spread: It's best to wait just long enough so that the news can travel. It may not take long, just a week or so, but it's a good idea to give it some time to avoid any confusion.

2. Plan ahead for the right time: It's not a good idea to decide to make your first appearance without your wedding band at an event where you'll see your spouse or any family members. The appropriate place and time will be at an event where you'll be attending on your own, without your spouse or family members.

3. Communicate with your soon-to-be ex: A good way to know when it's the right time to remove your wedding ring in public is by discussing it with your soon-to-be ex-partner. If you're both okay with stepping out without your rings, then you'll know it's the perfect time.
