Cupid’s Advice:

Keeping a marriage fresh and healthy for a long period of time is usually not as effortless as it may seem. Just like anything else, marriages take hard work to stay strong and remain successful. Here are some tips on how to keep a powerful, lasting marriage:

1. Remind your partner that you appreciate them: The honeymoon phase doesn’t last forever. If you and your partner have started to be less affectionate toward each other, it’s important to always remind them that you appreciate them.

2. Watch what you say to your partner: Being with someone for so long, you can easily start to let things slip that may be hurtful. You may be so comfortable with your partner that you mistakenly tell them that you find your new neighbor attractive. This comment can offend your partner, so just be mindful of what you say.

3. Try to prevent arguments: If you know that your partner's biggest pet peeve is when you forget to rinse your dish after dinner, then don't forget to do it! The small arguments can lead into big ones, so preventing them from happening altogether is your best option.
