In celebrity news, Ron Gronkowski's girlfriend is supporting him post-retirement. What are some ways to support your partner's career?

Cupid's Advice:

Aside from supporting your partner publicly, here are a few tips Cupid has gathered for ways to support your partner in his or her career:

1. Let them know you're there for them: It doesn't matter what career path your partner has taken: writer, car salesman, NFL Football—always let your partner know that you are supportive of their career decisions. Knowing that you are supportive will boost their self-esteem and give them a reason to keep pushing forward.

2. Understand work schedules: Knowing your partner's work schedule is important. Part of their job requirement may be working out of state or putting in longer hours than your job requires. Letting your partner know that you understand will go a long way in keeping things smooth since they won't feel like they have to choose between you or work to make your relationship last.

3. Listen to work-related stories: Sometimes we all need to get our long work day off our chest. Letting your partner listen to work stories will give them a chance to vent frustration or share excitement about work. In turn, they'll be more willing when you need to vent or share excitement about your career.
