In celebrity news, the reason behind Lady Gaga's broken engagement is finally coming to light. What are some tips for dealing with jealousy?

Cupid's Advice:

A jealous partner does not mean you have to immediately break up with them. Cupid has some tips to deal with jealousy. But just remember, if it ever starts to feel too out of control, you are right in calling off the relationship:

1. Stay calm: Listen to your partner and the reasons that they are jealous. Most likely it isn't something you have done and they might have some insecurities about the relationship that you both need to work on. Remember, a key to a strong relationship is communication, and if you can't listen to their concerns, then it might not work out.

2. Create boundaries: Your partner needs to know and respect your boundaries, but you also have to know and accept theirs. If they are concerned about your friendship with someone of the opposite sex, make it clear that you are only friends and there is no reason to be suspicious of the friendship.

3. Show affection: As long as you feel like the situation isn't abusive, show your partner some extra affection after you discuss their jealousy and dispel any reasons to be jealous. Holding hands or cuddling on the couch to watch a movie might help them feel more secure in the relationship.
