In celebrity wedding news, this isn't exactly a favorable outcome. What are some yellow flags to look for before making a final decision on marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

It's easy to get wrapped up in the idea of love and being married to your partner. It's not expensive to get married if you decide to elope in the courthouse, either. But here are a few flags you should watch out for before making the final decision on marriage to your partner:

- 1. If they lie about something small: Chances are, they might be lying about something bigger. If you feel like your partner isn't honest, getting married should be off the table. You need to be able to trust your spouse.

2. You WANT to be with them: One way to know that you're ready for marriage is that you can't stand the thought of not being with your future spouse. Difficulty sleeping at night when they aren't there or getting super excited when you know they're about to come home from work is a sign you might be ready.

3. Listen to your gut feelings: Can you see yourself actually going the distance with this person? Are you excited about starting a life together, and having (or adopting children) together? If your gut is telling you to run, you may want to re-evaluate the situation.
