Cupid's Advice:

This celebrity mom has been keeping things civil with her celebrity exes for the sake of her children, and it even seems like they still all have a good time together as a family. Here are a few things to keep in mind when it comes to co-parenting:

1. Keep communication open: You'll need to text, call, or see the other co-parent in person. Keep yourself open to speaking with them and try to maintain a decent relationship even if you aren't together anymore.

2. Plan for holidays and vacations: Always keep each other in the loop on plans for holidays and vacations. If it's summer break and you want to take the kids to the beach and it's your co-parent's time to be with the children, for example, clear the air before you make any reservations.

You don't want your kid(s) feeling like they're the reason they caused you and your ex to split, and they don't need to feel any guilt over wanting to spend time with their other parent.
