Cupid's Advice:

We all change to some degree after we become parents or are about to become parents. Here are some ways it can happen:

1. Saturdays: Remember when you used to love sleeping in late and then hoofed it straight to the coffee pot only to binge watch your favorite show? You might have even treated yourself to a donut instead of a full-blown breakfast. Those days are now a thing of the past with little ones, which are reserved for morning cartoons and whipping up a full morning meal.

2. You'll make decisions differently: Before kids you might have been able to make a decision on a whim. No longer can you quit your job on a whim, plan a vacation across the United States, or decide to eat seven layer dip and tortillas for dinner—you'll question every move you make, asking, "how will this affect my child?"

3. You've never loved someone this much: You love your partner, but you love your child so much more. You'll do anything for them to make sure they are safe and happy, even if it means getting up at seven in the morning on a Saturday to watch cartoons with them instead of sleeping in. Or you'll play with them on the playground even if you keep running out of breath.
