By Megan McIntosh

Though they were previously a thing, French Montana and Khloe Kardashian are not a celebrity couple, according to UsMagazine.com. After Kardashian's divorce from Lamar Odom, she moved on with French Montana, but admitted that she "was not in a good place" when they dated. Now, after her breakup with Tristan Thompson, she is currently "not thinking about her love life at the moment" and is instead focusing on her daughter, True.

In celebrity news, it seems this rumor is unfounded. What are some reasons you should think twice before getting back together with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be difficult to know when it's right to rekindle an old flame. How do you know you shouldn't take that step and try getting back together; that it's time to really let it go and move on? Cupid has some advice:

1. Nothing has changed: What was the reason you broke up with your partner? Is that still an issue between you two? If nothing has changed since you broke up, then there's no reason to get back together. The issue will only re-emerge and cause a future break up.

2. The reason you're returning isn't a good one: Why are you getting back together with your ex? Is it because you genuinely have a connection, or is it because you want closure? Never return to an ex because you don't understand the break up. If you broke up, there must have been a reason. If that reason still stands, so should the break up.

3. It might be a rebound: Never rekindle an old flame for a rebound. If you broke up with someone, there's no reason to return to another ex as a rebound. If there's no emotional attachment, you can try to have fun. But, inevitably, feelings always pop up. If you want to rekindle with an old flame, it should only be you two involved in the why.
