In the latest celebrity news, the arrival of the royal celebrity couple Duchess Meghan and Prince Harry's royal celebrity baby, Archie Harrison Mountbatten-Winsor, means the Duchess will be spending more time with her celebrity royal sister-in-law, Duchess Kate. According to UsMagazine.com, an insider received this information from the palace, saying, "Meghan and Kate will be spending a lot more time together. Now that they're bonding over motherhood, they've become closer than ever." Aw! It's great to see that these royal sisters-in-law are putting aside their differences to bond as mothers of the next generation of the royal family.

In celebrity news, the alleged rivalry may be over between the two Duchesses, in favor of bonding over motherhood. What are some ways being parents can bring you and your partner closer together?

Cupid's Advice:

A new baby in the family is an exciting time for you and your partner. Here are a few ways that being new parents can bring you closer together:

1. You'll learn to lean on each other more: Sleepless nights with a crying baby, frustration over breastfeeding, learning to cope with new feelings that come along with having a new baby... All of these things will lead to you and your partner learning to lean on each other in ways you didn't before. You have a new little person who needs you and it won't work if you don't learn how to lean on each other.

2. Sleep deprivation: Sleep deprivation has a tendency to bring out our true selves. You won't realize how true your love for your partner is when the baby is screaming and you're both sleep deprived. Or how wonderful your partner is until they tell you to get rest when they tend the baby after nearly biting their head off.

3. You'll savor moments alone together: The first few months after the birth of your baby will give you both little time to be together. When you are finally comfortable with baby spending time with your parents/in-laws, you and your partner will enjoy the small date at the movies or extra time to sleep in together.
