Cupid's Advice:

It can be tough to know when you're truly ready to marry your partner. Cupid has some advice:

1. When participating in your partner's hobbies doesn't feel like a chore: If you are with the person you are truly in love with, and meant to spend your life with then you will not find spending time with them, doing things they love exhausting. Instead, you will pleasure in the joy it brings them to share their passion(s) with you. Marriage is a lifetime commitment, so you want to know you will enjoy spending your life with your partner.

2. You enjoy each other's company: When you are married you and your partner will be spending the majority of your time together, just the two of you. Before you make the leap into marriage, it is important that you can enjoy time together when it is just the two of you; no friends or outside distractions. Do you enjoy everyday tasks when it is just the two of you alone at home reading or catching a movie on television?

3. You love yourself: It may sound cliché, but the number one key to loving someone completely enough to commit to spending your life with them is loving yourself. If you do not love yourself, that negativity will seep into your relationship and slowly pick it apart. Put your faith and love into yourself first, then you can share your heart with your partner and love them without holding back.
