In celebrity wedding news, Chris and Katherine said “I do” in front of family and friends at their “classic and romantic” wedding. What are some ways to make your wedding classic and romantic?

Cupid’s Advice:

Planning a wedding can be an elaborate event, but sometimes it is nice to go back to the basics and keep everything classic and focus on romance. If you want to focus on having a classic, romantic wedding there are numerous tactics you can choose from keeping the guest list small, to sticking with a classic black and white color scheme. Cupid has some advice for keeping your nuptials classic and romantic:

1. Style and color: Your color scheme and dress are big parts of the tone set for your wedding. Simple combinations like black and white will keep everything classic, and make sure that the focus is on you and your partner instead of an overly complicated wedding theme. A beautiful white ball gown wedding dress is just the finishing touch needed to keep this classic look moving in the right direction.

2. Roses: Nothing says romance quite like a bouquet of roses. They come in many different colors, so you will be able to find the right combination to go with your dress and overall theme. They are available year-round and will add just the right touch of femininity and romantic charm for your classic wedding theme.

3. Classic music: Just like your dress and color scheme, the music at your wedding plays a big part in setting the tone for your wedding. If you want to keep things classic and romantic, stick with classic wedding songs. If you have live music, choose string instruments like the violin for that classic vibe. "At Last" by Etta James makes a great wedding song for a classic, romantic wedding ceremony.
