In celebrity news, Prince William and Duchess Kate recently went through a tough time with hateful rumors. What are some ways to keep rumors from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

In the era of social media and online news, rumors get started faster than ever, and most people don't take the time to check the facts before they believe whatever they hear or read. Rumors can tear a good relationship apart if either party feeds into them. Here are some tips from Cupid to keep rumors from affecting your relationship:

1. Keep your private life private: It is easy to get sucked into social media and many people wind up oversharing. The problem with sharing every little detail about your relationships is that those details can get stretched, and people can make of them whatever they want. Venting when you're upset online can make things even worse. Your relationship is between you and your partner, and it should not be fuel for your social media feed.

2. Trust: One of the most important things in a successful relationship is having trust between you and your partner. A relationship without trust is bound for failure. Trust is developed over time based on your actions in your relationship.

and the actions of your partner. If you trust your partner then it won't be so easy for something as trivial as a rumor to come between the two of you, and you will be better prepared to work through any harmful rumors thrown your way.

3. Don't easily condemn your partner: If you don't have peace in your relationship and are constantly arguing with your partner over small things, a rift will develop and it can make it easier for you to believe rumors. Remember that nobody is perfect and try to cut each other some slack when it comes to the small things. If you constantly fighting and worried your partner is going to do something bad then you will feed into any harmful rumor you may hear. If you love your partner give them the benefit of doubt and don't always expect the worse.
