In the latest celebrity news, Hannah Brown considered quitting The Bachelorette in the most recent episode after an argument broke out between Luke P. and the other men. Spoiler alert! According to UsMagazine.com, Hannah broke up with Luke P. during their one-on-one date because giving him the rose didn't make sense to her, but she later reconsidered when Luke P. came back to her to argue his case. Later in the episode, Garrett decided to confront Luke about lying to Hannah about various guys in the house, and shouting ensued. Hannah had to step in twice to intervene, and she became frustrated. In the end, Hannah broke down in tears and ended the cocktail party early. This season of The Bachelorette is already wrought with drama, isn't it? Devin, Grant, and Keven were all sent home.

In celebrity news, Bachelorette Hannah had a stressful night on last night's episode. What are some ways to remain positive in the face of drama?

Cupid's Advice:

Poor Hannah dealt with a lot of drama after the men broke into an argument. Cupid has advice on how to remain positive in the face of drama:

1. Don't react: The person who started the drama is seeking attention. The best thing you can do is to not give them a reaction. This can be difficult when you really want to give them a what-for over their behavior but it will keep the situation from becoming worse.

3. Remove the drama from your life: This can be a difficult thing to do. If someone in your life is a drama seeker, you might care about them deeply, but drama runs in cycles. The best thing you can do is evaluate the situation. If you think the person causing the drama isn't going to stop then the best thing to do is to remove it from your life. Your well-being is far more important.
