Cupid's Advice:

Once news of a relationship hits the rumor mill, it'll keep spinning out of control. While you'll never eliminate gossip there are a few steps you can take to diminish it's power:

1. Present a strong front: Make sure you and your partner are on the same page regarding your public relationship. Talk with you partner about the ins and outs of PDA, social media, and what can be said when. It's a delicate balance of respecting each other's boundaries and standing united.

2. Be honest: The strongest defense from rumors is authenticity. When you're coming from a genuine place it's much harder to misread the signals and twist your words into rumors.

3. Keep your relationship low-key: This may not be for everyone. Even I'm not immune to a good Instagram post celebrating inner aspects of my life. Yet the easiest way to avoid rumors is to not be in the public eye. If you keep your relationship in real life with people who know you, the rumors will likely die out.
