

Parenting Tips: Best Subscription Services for Kids

By Katie Sotack

Subscription-based services are everywhere. From meal kits to style and book boxes, you can get your monthly fix with a continuous supply of goodies. Subscription-based services are set to become the hottest parenting trend in 2019. These boxes range from toys to diapers, and the options are endless.

With diapers, food, and fun able to be shipped regularly, there's no need for a trip to the store any longer. Check out the subscription packages that may be right for you with these parenting tips.

Subscription-based services are an efficient way to shop. All they require is a customizable "click." This system is especially convenient for new parents who can no longer pop out to the store without worrying about the baby. Here are great starter kits for parents who want fun essentials shipped and delivered:

1. Happy Family Organics: Operating on a monthly basis, HFO specializes in sending food based on your child's "growing taste buds and dietary needs". You're required to enter the little one's age and allergies before selecting from options and restrictions. The company says it'll "build a unique bundle" for your child. If you find yourself dissatisfied with the service you can cancel whenever you like without fees.

2. Lovevery: Lovevery works by delivering toys based on your child's age. The toys venture between 0-24 months and are categorized into sections by experts. The boxes ship every two to three months, depending on your baby's stage with a guarantee that the package's cotton and wood are sourced sustainably and organically.

3. The Honest Company: Enjoy a shipment of seven jumbo diaper bags and four packs of Honest wipes every month. With this service, you're able to craft the exact diaper you want for your little one with customizable prints. All diapers are certified eco-friendly, super absorbent, and made without fragrances or lotions.
