Cupid’s Advice:

Being on amicable terms with your ex is the ideal co-parenting situation for any parents. By remaining friendly with your former partner, your children can transition more smoothly into their own version of a typical day-to-day lifestyle. Cupid has a few ways to play nice with your ex for the sake of your children:

1. Ask them how they are doing: Simply asking how someone is doing can brighten their day and give them the sense that you truly care about what is going on in their lives. Whether you listen to them talk about their job, how they are feeling mentally, or even their newfound love life, it is important to show that you still care for your ex's well being, despite not being together anymore.

2. Be supportive of their decisions: Just like you, your ex is a competent individual. Whether they decide to venture into a new career opportunity, or even begin to start dating a new person, let them know that you are supportive of them in their decisions, and they will do the same in return.

3. Don't bring up any sensitive topics: It is important to remember that you and your ex broke up for a reason. If you're going to talk about the past, try to focus on the happy times, and not times where things were a bit rough. By focusing on the happier times, you and your ex will be able to stay civil for not on your children, but friends and family as well.
