Long time friends Kylie Jenner and Sofia Richie are on the mend, and no one is happier than Richie's boyfriend, Scott Disick. The inter-tangled friend/family history has made the relationships difficult to parse out from one another, but Disick is grateful to his baby mama's sister, Jenner, for welcoming his girl back into the family. The celebrity friends were seen bikini clad and rejoicing on a tropical vacation to Turks and Caicos, reaffirming to the world that everything was a-ok between the two.

In celebrity couple news, Scott Disick enjoys having the support of Kylie Jenner when it comes to his relationship. What are some ways to support your ex's new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

With all the complicated feelings that even thinking about your ex brings, having them bring their next S.O. into the family is tricky to say the least. Jenner is supporting Disick and Richie's relationship like a mature and respectful ally. Here are relationship tips to root for your ex's new love:

1. Keep your distance: You see your ex repeating similar patterns, you don't think their new lover is treating them right, etc. It's so tempting to pinch the lovebirds on the shoulder and straighten them out. Don't do it. When you get the temptation to meddle, take a deep breath and walk away. By commenting on their current situation, you are adding your baggage with ex-bae to their new love. It's better to keep your distance here.

2. Accept their new partner: Possibly the biggest thing you can do to support their relationship is accepting their new partner. It doesn't have to be as a close confidant, though friendship is a great way to start this process. Welcome the partner into your family space and accept them as a potential life long member.

3. Show social media support: If your friends and family can see you liking and commenting on your ex's new relationship status, they're more likely to show support as well. If you're acting bitter, it's only natural they'd want to have your back and criticize the couple. Be the bigger person and show no negative will toward your ex.
