Cupid's Advice:

We don't always expect a relationship to become serious when it first begins. Sometimes your relationship grows into something more mature and long-lasting than you expected in the beginning. Cupid has some advice ways to know your relationship is getting serious:

1. You spend a lot of time together: When you begin spending a majority of your free time with your partner it's a good sign things are getting serious. You think about them often, and when you're not together you may find yourself missing them or wanting to see them. You make each other happy and truly enjoy each other's company.

2. You've met each other's family: You will know that your relationship is getting serious when you and your partner meet each other's family. Even just knowing that you want to introduce your partner to your parents and/or family is a sign things are growing between you and becoming serious. Introducing them to your family means you've accepted them as an important part of your life and you want your family to know them as someone you care about.

3. You want to be a part of their success: You know things are growing serious when your partner's successes become something you want to celebrate like you would your own. You are genuinely happy for them, even in their small, everyday successes, and you only want the best for them in their future.
