In the latest celebrity news, Bachelorette Hannah Brown ended her engagement to Jed Wyatt. Five weeks after their engagement, Brown was heartbroken to find out that her relationship with Wyatt began with lies when she discovered he had a girlfriend when he first entered the show. According to People.com, Brown said finding out Wyatt hadn't been honest was "heartbreaking" and that by being dishonest "he hurt [her] worse than anybody else did."

In celebrity news, Hannah wasn't willing to settle once she found out Jed had been dishonest with her. What are some ways to know your partner is lying to you?

Cupid's Advice:

For these reality tv stars, happy ever after is no longer in their future. Wyatt's dishonesty broke Brown's heart and left her unable to forgive him for the hurt he caused her. It is never good when you find out that someone you love has lied to you. Cupid has some advice to help you know when your partner is lying to you:

1. They say they never lie: Anyone who tells you that they never lie is lying to you. It is common for everyone to tell little white lies from time to time. Sometimes these kind of lies are okay because they are meant to protect someone's feelings or something of that nature. Getting caught in a small lie like that wouldn't have any real consequences. We all tell these kinds of lies, so an honest partner would have no reason to insist they never lie at all.

2. Lack of eye contact: One of the tell-tale signs of lying that is upheld as true by science is when someone refuses to make eye contact. If your partner is normally someone who makes eye contact with you when you're talking, and now they are avoiding that eye contact it is a good indicator they aren't being honest about something.

3. They accuse you of lying: One of the oldest tricks in the books is to try to get the focus off them by pointing their finger at you. Your partner might accuse you of lying or cheating out of the blue. This blame game is often a way to try to justify their own dishonest actions.
