In celebrity engagement news, it seems another Pump Rules couple will be heading down the aisle! What are some important things to remember when everyone around you is getting married and having babies?

Cupid's Advice:

It's a fact of life. Friends get married and then, eventually, have babies. Even if you aren't attached to someone yet, you don't need to rush to get married and have babies of your own. Cupid has a few ideas on what to remember when everyone around you is getting married and having babies:

1. Don't rush: You'll have marriage and babies when you are ready for it. Even if you're single, you don't need to put pressure on yourself to meet "the one". Rushing can lead to a lot of mistakes you'll regret later, like marrying the wrong person, and will make your life more difficult once children are involved.

2. You're not selfish: So what if your career is more important than marriage and kids right now? It's okay to focus on the things you want to do while you're still young. Write that novel, take that trip to Scotland for an Outlander tour, or soak up the sun in the Bahamas on a mini-vacay.

3. Your time will come: Nothing is more agitating than having your baby fever kick because of your first meeting your friend's cute new baby and you haven't met someone you're happy with yet. Take the time to enjoy being single. Date and find the right person.
