In celebrity news, Bachelor in Paradise celebrity couple, Demi Burnett and Kristian Haggerty are engaged. The couple proposed to each other during the September 10th episode of Bachelor in Paradise. It hasn't always been smooth sailing for the couple. The celebrity relationship faced criticism when Burnett was accused of pre-planning Haggerty's arrival on the show. Burnett then denied the claim. The celebrity couple has also faced some trust issues when both felt as though the other was interested in or flirting with other people. However, they've since worked through those issues and are looking forward to celebrating their new engagement.

This celebrity wedding comes after Demi Burnett came out on national television. What are some benefits to being yourself when going into a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Demi Burnett and Kristian Haggerty are happily engaged! Though there was backlash in regards to Burnett's sexuality, she was still able to find love in spite of that. Being yourself leads to an open and honest relationship, but that isn't all! Cupid has some tips on the benefits of being yourself when going into a relationship:

1. You'll feel closer to your partner: If you're open and honest about who you are off the bat then you can avoid any awkward conversations in the future with your partner and you'll be able to act like your natural self around them.

2. You'll be happier: Hiding things seldom makes us happy. Once your partner knows about the things you may be tempted to hide, then you won't have to stress about them finding out. You can focus on building other aspects of your relationship knowing that the foundation was built on solid ground.

3. You'll know it is true love: What's the point of being in love if you have to act like someone you're not? You can't be in true love if you're continuously hiding who you are from the person you love. You will be able to rest easily knowing that your significant other loves you in spite of the things you may feel like you need to hide.
