In celebrity news, “Hollaback Girl” singer, Gwen Stefani, did not know her country superstar boyfriend Blake Shelton existed prior to The Voice. The celebrity couple met when they had just divorced their celebrity exes. The two have a love dovey relationship on the show and plan to keep it that way for this season. According to UsMagazine.com, the songwriter said, “I mean, he’s just so magical. Blake is literally a unicorn. Like, anywhere he goes, people are just attracted to him.”

In celebrity news, Blake Shelton's name isn't famous to everyone's ears, apparently. What are some ways to approach your crush?

Cupid's Advice:

It's not all that bad to not know who your crush was until you met them. That said, approaching your crush can be the hardest thing to do. Cupid has some advice on how to approach your crush:

1. Watch how they interact with others: What is their personality like? Are they reserved or outspoken? Do you see any key indicators on them like a football team logo or a name tag from a job? Use what you can find to strike up a conversation to break the ice.

2. Show them you're interested: Walking passed your crush well-dressed and making eye contact is not just for the movies. It actually works. Eye contact and being groomed is a very attractive tactic that can draw your crush to you. Reel them in with a playful stare as you walk passed, keep looking at them, and then turn away. This will get there attention and who knows they might just make a move on you!

3. Talk to them: It's okay to just have a normal conversation with them to see what they are all about. Try not to bring up that you like them at first. See if they mention that they are with someone, and then take that approach. Their personality will tell you a lot about if you want to pursue them further.

Take baby steps before rushing for the goal!
